

FYI²: Family & Youth Information and Involvement

A brighter future for children and youth with disabilities begins with strong parent and professional collaboration.

Parents, youth, and the school personnel who work with them need to have high quality, relevant, and useful information and training, along with support services to ensure positive outcomes.

STEP can provide your district:

Professional Development

- ◆ Improving Family Involvement
- ◆ Early Childhood and Post-Secondary Transition Planning
- ◆ Customized Needs-Based Training

Parent Workshops - Available in English and Spanish

- ◆ Instructionally Appropriate IEP (IAIEP)
- ◆ Impact of TN State Standards for Students with Disabilities
- ◆ Response to Instruction and Intervention (RTI²)
- ◆ Taking the Mystery Out of Transition Planning (Post-Secondary)

Youth Activities

- ◆ Dream Building Activity: Engaging Youth in Transition Planning
- ◆ Topic specific group training to prepare youth to live, work, and participate fully in their communities. (i.e.: self-advocacy, graduation requirements, college and career readiness skills)

Secondary Transition Institutes & Information Fairs

Full day event where teachers, students, and family members learn about preparing students with disabilities to successfully transition from high school into the community to lead productive and independent adult lives.
