

Disability Coalition on Education and the TN Department of Education

Present

RTI² & Instructionally Appropriate IEPs

A community forum for advocates and parents to understand the elements of Response to Intervention (RTI²).

Jackson: Sep. 30 @ the STAR Center

Murfreesboro: Oct. 1 @ Patterson Park Community Center

Knoxville: Oct. 3 @ Central United Methodist Church

EACH TRAINING IS DIVIDED INTO TWO (2) SESSIONS:

First session—Advocates/Organizations: 1-4pm

Second session—Parents: 5-8pm

As of July 1, 2014, RTI² will be the problem solving model used to help identify a student with a Specific Learning Disability. This session will provide an in depth overview of Tennessee's RTI² framework and how this problem solving model will be used to identify need for special education intervention. In addition, an overview of Instructionally Appropriate IEPs will be delivered with discussion around identified area(s) of deficit, establishing need, present levels of performance, measurable annual goals and progress monitoring.
