

FEELING THROUGH

a short film by DOUG ROLAND

The unlikely connection between a teen without a home and a DeafBlind man

Movie Premiere

Sponsored by:

The KY & TN DeafBlind Interagency Partners:

Division of Vocational Rehabilitation Services

KY Deaf-Blind State Coordinator with OFB/OVR

Tennessee & Kentucky Deaf-Blind Projects

Bridges

Helen Keller National Center

OPEN TO THE PUBLIC
FREE!!

Movie premiere starring the first ever DeafBlind actor

When: Thursday, June 27, 2019 12 p.m. – 4 p.m.

Where: The Franklin Theatre 419 Main Street, Franklin, TN 37064

<https://www.franklintheatre.com/>

Register below by June 20th:

<https://www.eventbrite.com/e/deafblind-movie-premiere-feeling-through-tickets-61163469584>

Questions about the movie: Marilyn.Trader@hknc.org

HKNC Helps Make Film History with Feeling Through

What is it?

- For the first time ever: a DeafBlind man as a lead in a film
- The story: a short film about the unlikely connection between a teen without a home and a DeafBlind man
- A companion documentary about the filmmaking process

Who's making this possible?

- Doug Roland, writer/director
- Former HKNC student and current staff member Robert Tarango's acting debut
- HKNC, proud fiscal sponsor Instagram: @feelingthrough
- Twitter: @feelingthrough1

Where can I see it?

- There will be a nationwide screening series, which will include a panel discussion featuring members of the DeafBlind community

For updates and screening information:

Website: FeelingThrough.com

Facebook: @feelingthrough

Instagram: @feelingthrough

Twitter: @feelingthrough1